.reviews i m proud of rate your music may 28th, 2020 - i m of the strong belief that reviews are meant to be texts that show and display whatever a record videogame book movie or any piece of media really leaves you with i disagree with the very one sided view that reviews should just talk about the music and try to explain it and why it s good or bad there is no use to reviews that state exactly what is plain to see.
