crusades and jihads a long run economic perspective

May 17th, 2020 - crusades and jihads have been a part of the histories of christianity and islam for more than a century this article examines this often violent history from several perspectives focusing heavily on the period between 1000 and 1300 and on the factors that allowed europe and its overseas extensions in north america and australia to economically overtake the rest of the world by 1600'
